Tiger Appoints New Eastern Canada Manager

St. John's, Canada – Tiger Offshore Rentals (“Tiger”) is pleased to announce a new addition to our Canadian Team. Paul Carter has joined Tiger as the Eastern Canada Manager. He brings over 15 years of experience in the oil and gas industry to this new role.

Mr. Carter's most recent work history was as Warehouse Manager for Blue Water Group. In this role, he executed warehouse and inventory management of ExxonMobil equipment for the Hibernia and Hebron drilling and production platforms. Prior to that, Mr. Carter spent 12 years working in logistics management with A. Harvey Marine Base in St. John's, Canada. It is through the port of St. John's and primarily the marine base that the oil industry in Eastern Canada is supplied. There he coordinated the daily workflow of unionized labour, equipment, vessels, containers, cargo and other resources in a safe and efficient manner.

Tiger has facilities in St. John's and Halifax with a diverse fleet of equipment including over 100 DNV certified offshore cargo carrying equipment, long baskets, drum racks, fluid transport tanks, ECOMats™ and more. In his new role, Mr. Carter will take the lead at these locations with all sales and operations. Staffon Richard, Louisiana & Canada Sales, will continue to market Tiger in Canada and offer support as needed from the United States.

“We are excited to bring Paul on as our newest team member,” remarked William Drost, General Manager. He brings a valuable combination of skills to the table that will benefit our goals and strategies going forward in the Canadian market.
